

Stranraer Development Trust

Ordinary Membership Form

Stranraer Development Trust has been formed to engage in activities which benefit and support the community of Stranraer by attracting funding to resource local projects and activities and administer those funds in accordance with the constitution of the Trust. The Trust will take forward a number of projects that will increase opportunities, improve the attractiveness of the town, attract more visitors and revive the lost sense of pride in the town and what it has to offer.

Being a Member of Stranraer Development Trust will allow you to attend and vote at our Annual General Meeting. Membership is free and open to all residents within the catchment area as defined by the areas of Stranraer and Ochtrelure and Belmont Community Councils. (Associate Membership is available to residents or organisations out-with these areas who support the objectives of the Trust. Please request an Associate Membership Form)
